A message from Mrs Gum

A huge thank you to the Friends of St Josephs PTA, staff and parent volunteers who made the disco possible on Wednesday night. It is a huge commitment to organise, plan and run such an event and this is all done in people's own free time. Without the commitment of these people we would simply not be able to afford some of the resources we have around school. School has come under criticism this week regarding communication around PTA events. PTA events and meetings are routinely publicised on the school newsletter, the PTA and school Facebook pages and via communications shared by school. The PTA fliers and Facebook posts have been explicitly clear around how tickets etc can be secured and it is vital that communications are read thoroughly to avoid disappointment. The PTA is not lead or managed by school. If you know of more efficient or effective ways for the PTA to carry out their work, then they would love you to join their meetings and help shape Friends of St Joseph's. It is easy to criticise from the comfort of your sofa but not so easy to pull events together and raise vital funds that will benefit your children.
